

The Methodist Church

Pensions Trustee (Volunteer role)

Methodist Ministers' Pension Scheme (MMPS) & Pension and Assurance Scheme for Lay Employees of the Methodist Church (PASLEMC)

Background

The Methodist Ministers' Pension Scheme (MMPS) is a defined benefit occupational pension scheme with a membership of 4,300 ministers and assets of over £470m. The Pension and Assurance Scheme for Lay Employees of the Methodist Church (PASLEMC) has assets of over £73 million and a membership base of around 750.

About the Role

The Methodist Church is seeking to recruit a new pension scheme board member with public, private or not-for-profit experience and a passion that mirrors the mission of the Church and its values. Initial training will be provided, and all trustees are expected to attend an annual training day so knowledge of current pensions law is not a requirement.

Qualities and skills applicants should have:

- o experience in actuarial, pensions, investments or finance
- o the ability to act impartially, fairly and without conflict
- o the skills to analyse proposals and make recommendations
- o good diplomacy

Time Commitment: The role requires attendance at Board meetings that are normally held in London, 4 times a year (estimated commitment of 3-4 hours a month). The successful applicant may be invited to join other sub-committees of the Trust where attendance is also 4 times a year (estimated commitment of 2-3 hours a month).

If you are willing to serve the Church in this way, please visit our website for more information and an Expression of Interest form:

Closing date: Monday 5 March 2018 by 12 noon

Interviews will be held week commencing 12 March 2018

For further details and Expression of Interest form from:

E-mail: recruitment@methodistchurch.org.uk or go to:

www.methodist.org.uk/jobopportunities