

Two Saturdays exploring our attitudes and fears to being Christians in dealing with those of other faiths through a mixture of discussion and lecture led by Sean Oliver-Dee

SEAN OLIVER-DEE was formerly the Inter-religious advisor for the diocese. He has had long experience of cross-cultural engagement from the 1990s, living in the heavily Bangladeshi region of Whitechapel in East London, through to living in South India and teaching at an international school. Sean serves as an Executive Director of the agency Interserve, which has been placing mission workers both in the Asian and Arab speaking worlds, as well as in the urban centres of the UK for a century and a half (under different names). He is an effective communicator, doing numerous public talks as well as the academic lectures which are one part of his part-time role as a Fellow of the Oxford Centre for Christianity and Culture, University of Oxford.

THE COURSE sets our engagement with other faiths in the context of the societal changes going on around us; provides information on the differing perspectives, doctrines and values of the other major world religions and sets out to enable confidence and encouragement on how to 'be Christ' when we encounter and engage other faith communities.
